Christmas Eve Candle Liturgy

Candle Lighting&Advent Reading Old Barns: Julie and Gordie Miller
We come into this church thankful for Joseph and for his willingness to venture to Bethlehem with Mary.

The courage of Joseph is light for us this Christmas Eve. (Light a blue candle.)

We come to this church thankful for Mary, who took responsibility for bringing Jesus to birth.

The commitment of Mary is light to us this Christmas Eve. (Light a blue candle.)

We come to this church thankful for shepherds, angels, and Magi, who responded with joy to Jesus’ birth.

Their stories-which are shared in our readings and carols-are light to us this Christmas Eve.
(Light a blue candle.)

We come to this church thankful to the saints, who have faithfully celebrated the birth of Jesus down the ages.

The faithfulness of God’s people is light to us this Christmas Eve. (Light a blue candle.) We come to this church thankful for God’s chosen child, whose birth story we hear and whose life story changes our lives.

Jesus is the light of our lives this Christmas Eve and throughout the year. (Light the white candle.)

A Christmas Affirmation of Faith

We believe in Jesus Christ, and the beauty of the Gospel that began in a lowly manger in Bethlehem.
We believe in the One... whose spirit brings music to people all over the world
in communities both large and small.
We believe in the One...
for whom the crowded inn could find no room,
and we confess that our hearts still want to exclude Christ from our lives today.
We believe in the One... whom the rulers of the earth ignore and the proud do not understand, whose life is among the common people,
and whose welcome comes from people with hungry hearts.
We believe in the One... who looks at people and makes them see what God's love sees in them and who by love accepts all people and who forgives all sinners.
We believe in the One...
who willingly eats with saints and sinners alike.
We believe in the One
who can penetrate even the darkest night and bring healing and light to the soul and the world.
We believe in the One... who can fill our empty hearts with love now and forever. Thanks be to God. Amen
